(Phew I asked Lanlan to send those two kids to hospital, it should be fine
Luckily we didn't catch much attention!
Xinxin, come here, say goodbye to the school leaders. Don't be naive.

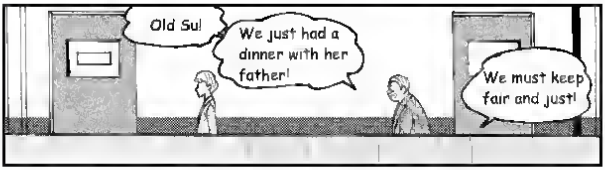
I was afraid of letting the assessment group know! It may affect our rating!
Luckily that young lady is kind of easy going...it should be fine.
Really?
The key is! How can that kind of students stay in our school!
They don't belong to our school district anyway! We'll have no problem kicking them out!

U17.com

Oh right! Ling has been involved with it all along
Although she seemed to side with the school, she did hide it from us!
Does she think she can do whatever she wants just because she's the council president and has father up there?

I told you! Don't say bad words against Ling



Old Su!
We just had a dinner with her father!
We must keep fair and just!

She viewed Class 5-3 as a state and herself as the empress.

She conquered the entire class by real strength.
Erected her own reputation

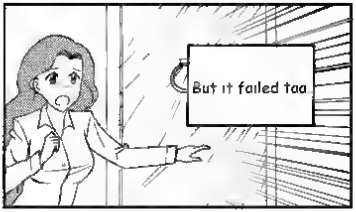
What's more

U17.com

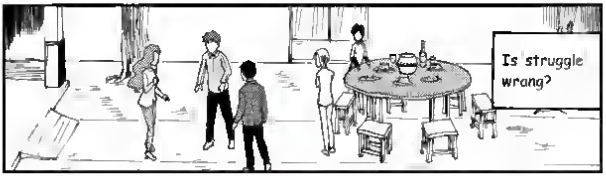
She revitalised a pool of dead water
What used to be a pile of loose sand started to cohere
However just when everything was going for the good
Class 5-3 encountered great obstacles from outside facing a crisis of reallocation (subjugation)

Despite endless effort of the entire class...
They were framed up and failed to turn the situation around

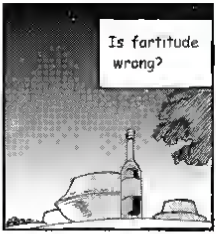
Later Hua and several brave warriors made a plot



But it failed too



Is struggle wrong?



Is fortitude wrong?

What's right then?
